

Corporate Governance 2013/14

December 2014

Statutory corporate governance statement for the 2013/14 financial year, see Section 107 b of the Danish Financial Statements Act (Årsregnskabsloven).

This report is a supplement to the management's review of Ambu A/S's Annual Report.

The report is based on the Committee on Corporate Governance's recommendations of May 2013 and must be construed in accordance with applicable requirements for listed companies.

1. Communication and interaction by the company with its investors and other stakeholders

1.1. Dialogue between company, shareholders and other stakeholders

1.1.1. The committee recommends that the board of directors ensure ongoing dialogue between the company and its shareholders in order for the shareholders to gain relevant insight into the company's potential and policies, and in order for the board of directors to be aware of the shareholders' views, interests and opinions on the company.	Yes			The dialogue with shareholders and stakeholders and the information for these groups take the form of interim reports and other announcements from the company, conference calls in connection with the release of interim reports and financial statements and via meetings with investors, analysts and the media. Interim reports and other announcements are made available on the Ambu website immediately after publication. The website also contains information used in connection with investor presentations and conference calls. The website is in English, but announcements and annual reports are also available in Danish. Ambu has a communication policy, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors.
1.1.2. The committee recommends that the board of directors adopt policies on the company's relationship with its stakeholders, including shareholders and other investors, and that the board ensures that the interests of the shareholders are respected in accordance with company policies.	Yes			Ambu's policy on the relationship with its stakeholders forms an integrated part of the company's values and of its overall communications policy and CSR strategy (see below). Ambu generally wishes for the dialogue with the company's stakeholders to be conducted in a respectful manner. Ambu is therefore adhering to a management standard (code of conduct) which sets out good business practice in respect of the company's interaction with public authorities, suppliers and other decision-makers. Ambu has also defined a policy in relation to the company's investors, which is available on the company website.
1.1.3. The committee recommends that the company publish quarterly reports.	Yes			Ambu publishes quarterly reports and intends to continue to do so in future.

1.2. General meeting

1.2.1. The committee recommends that, when organising the company's general meeting, the board of directors plans the meeting to support active ownership.	Yes			Ambu's general meeting constitutes the actual forum for communication and discussion as well as the forum where the shareholders voice their opinions and can make decisions. Notices of general meetings are submitted directly to all registered shareholders who have requested this. At the general meeting, Ambu's management strives to provide a thorough account of the company's business development and strategy and encourages the shareholders to participate in an open debate about Ambu's development. For the time being, the Board of Directors has decided that the general meeting must be conducted by physical attendance.
1.2.2. The committee recommends that proxies granted for the general meeting allow shareholders to consider each individual item on the agenda.	Yes			It is possible for the shareholders to consider each individual item on the agenda via the proxy forms made available by Ambu.

1.3. Takeover bids

1.3.1. The committee recommends that the company set up contingency procedures in the event of takeover bids from the time that the board of directors has reason to believe that a takeover bid will be made. According to such contingency procedures, the board of directors should not without the acceptance of the general meeting, attempt to counter the takeover bid by making decisions which in reality prevent the shareholders from deciding on the takeover bid themselves.	Yes			Apart from the difference in the weighting of votes between Class A shares and Class B shares, there is no protection against takeover in the form of voting ceilings or ownership limitations. Ambu has set up contingency procedures in the event of takeover bids covering the period as from when the Board of Directors has reason to believe that a takeover bid will be made. According to the contingency procedures, the Board of Directors should not without the acceptance of the general meeting, attempt to counter a takeover bid by making decisions which in reality prevent the shareholders from deciding on the takeover bid themselves.

2. Tasks and responsibilities of the board of directors

2.1. Overall tasks and responsibilities

2.1.1. The committee recommends that at least once a year the board of directors take a position on the matters related to the board's performance of its responsibilities.	Yes			At least once a year the Board of Directors takes a position on the matters related to the Board's performance of its responsibilities. This is stated in the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors.
2.1.2. The committee recommends that at least once a year the board of directors take a position on the overall strategy of the company with a view to ensuring value creation in the company.	Yes			Ambu's overall strategy is normally adopted every three or four years, and the budget for the coming financial year is approved once a year. Each year, the Global Management Team participates in the preparation of a detailed strategy plan for the coming financial year. The strategy plan is based on the three or four-year strategy. A draft strategy plan is presented to the Board of Directors which finalises the strategy.
2.1.3. The committee recommends that the board of directors ensure that the company has a capital and share structure ensuring that the strategy and long-term value creation of the company are in the best interest of the shareholders and the company, and that the board of directors presents this in the management commentary on the company's annual report and/or on the company's website.	Yes			Ambu's share capital is divided into Class A and Class B shares. The Class B shares are listed on NASDAQ OMX Copenhagen, whereas the Class A shares are non-negotiable securities. The Board of Directors considers on an ongoing basis whether the capital and share capital structure is in line with the best interests of the company and its shareholders. The Board of Directors' assessment thereof appears from the annual report.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company does not comply	The company complies partially	The company's explanation
2.1.4. The committee recommends that the board of directors annually review and approve guidelines for the executive board; this includes establishing requirements for the executive board on timely, accurate and adequate reporting to the board of directors.	Yes			The rules of procedure of the Board of Directors lay down the overall framework for the work of the Board related to the financial and managerial control of the company. The Board of Directors ensures that the necessary policies, e.g. financial policies and insurance policies, are prepared and regularly updated and that the company's risk management and internal controls are assessed on an ongoing basis. The Board of Directors has also laid down guidelines for the management's reporting to the Board, for example in the Board of Directors' annual schedule. The establishment and description of the areas of responsibility of the Executive Board, including the requirements for the Executive Board's reporting to the Board of Directors as well as for the communication between the two governing bodies, form part of the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors.
2.1.5. The committee recommends that at least once a year the board of directors discuss the composition of the executive board, as well as developments, risks and succession plans.	Yes			Every year, the Board of Directors discusses the composition of the Executive Board as well as developments, risks and succession plans. This can be seen from the Board of Directors' annual schedule.

Recommendation	The company complies	The company does not comply	The company complies partially	The company's explanation
2.1.6. The committee recommends that once a year the board of directors discuss the company's activities to ensure relevant diversity at management levels, including setting specific goals and accounting for its objectives and progress made in achieving the objectives in the management commentary on the company's annual report and/or on the website of the company.	Yes			Ambu wants to promote diversity in the company, for example by ensuring equal opportunities for both genders, and this is part of Ambu's Code of Conduct. In the recruitment of new managers, emphasis is placed on identifying candidates of both genders and on ensuring equal terms. However, the primary concern is to recruit people with the right expertise and competence for the organisation. Ambu's Global Management Team, which comprises the Executive Board and the group of managers just below the Executive Board, consists of approx. 85% men and approx. 15% women. In connection with the nomination of new board members, a careful assessment is made of the knowledge and professional experience which is required to ensure the presence on the Board of Directors of the necessary competences. At the same time, the Board of Directors is working to ensure that the members of the Board of Directors supplement each other in the best possible way in terms of their age, background, gender etc., thereby being able to provide a competent and versatile contribution to the work of Ambu's Board of Directors. All members of the Board of Directors elected by Ambu's general meeting are currently men, while the two of the three members of the Board of Directors elected by the employees are women. Ambu has defined targets for increasing the proportion of women on the Board of Directors before 2018.

2.2. Corporate social responsibility

2.2.1. The committee recommends that the board of directors adopt policies on corporate social responsibility.	Yes			Ambu's business is inextricably linked to social responsibility. This is not solely due to the fact that it is Ambu's vision to save lives and improve patient care. Working with corporate social responsibility also contributes to forging good relations with customers and suppliers, increasing productivity and reducing waste, reducing non-financial risks and strengthening the company's identity and culture. Ambu's structured work with business-driven corporate social responsibility is based on the principles of the UN's Global Compact initiative and can be divided into three overall focus areas which are particularly relevant for Ambu's efforts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ People and society ▪ Surroundings and products ▪ Business ethics With reference to the three overall focus areas, Ambu has prepared Corporate Guidelines setting out nine guidelines for the work on business-driven corporate social responsibility in Ambu. Furthermore, specific action plans have been made for future activities. The general framework for Ambu's CSR activities is contained in its: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Code of Conduct • Code of Conduct for Ambu Suppliers • Environmental policy Read more at www.ambu.com/csr.

2.3. Chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors

2.3.1. The committee recommends appointing a vice-chairman of the board of directors who will assume the responsibilities of the chairman in the event of the chairman's absence, and who will also act as effective sparring partner for the chairman.	Yes			A Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors has been appointed. The Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors is appointed in connection with the first meeting of the Board of Directors immediately following the company's general meeting. The role of the Vice-Chairman complies with the recommendations and with the provisions set out in the company's Articles of Association and the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors. The Chairmanship holds a total of 5-8 meetings a year attended by both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman. A work and task list for the Chairman and Vice-Chairman forms part of the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors, which is reviewed once a year, see the Board of Directors' annual schedule.
2.3.2. The committee recommends ensuring that, if the board of directors, in exceptional cases, asks the chairman of the board of directors to perform special operating activities for the company, including briefly participating in the day-to-day management, a board resolution to that effect be passed to ensure that the board of directors maintains its independent, overall management and control function. Resolutions on the chairman's participation in day-to-day management and the expected duration hereof should be published in a company announcement.	Yes			Ambu's Chairman of the Board of Directors does not participate in the day-to-day management of the company.
